Dear Principal,

We are an organization specified at dealing with domain name dispute and registration in Asia. We have something important on intellectual property right need to confirm with your company.

Today we received a formal application from a company called Menvon Investment Ltd, who applied to register "ideas4hotels" as their domain name in some countries and internet keyword. During our preliminary investigation, we found that these domain names' keyword is identical with your trademark. I wonder whether you consigned Menvon Investment Ltd to register these domain names with us? Or is Menvon Investment Ltd your business partner or distributor in Asia?

Currently, we have already postponed this application of this company temporarily. Therefore please let the relevant person make a confirmation with me by telephone or email ASAP.

Best Regards
Henry Luo
